

America, the Greatest Nation

America is a greatest nation on Earth! America is the greatest nation because it gives opportunity to all. America grants every citizen the right to an education and gives people a chance at freedom. America is a country of hope.

America gives every person a chance to become better. People who come here better themselves through hard work. America gives so many people who are unfortunate a chance which gives them hope for a better future. Theodore Roosevelt once said these inspirational words, "This country will not be a good place to live unless we make it a good place for all of us to live in." People who come here often come with nothing. They come here for a second chance. The reason America can give people a chance to better themselves because we are guided by God to help others. The Bible commands us to "love one another" and in this country we help those in need.

America is built on knowledge. America grants all of its citizens the opportunity to attain an education. People migrate to America to learn what is needed. Education is the key to success in modern day society. The ability to learn is given by God. Exodus 31:3 states, "And I have filled him with the Spirit of God, in wisdom, and in understanding, and in knowledge, and in all manner of workmanship." Thanks to God we all have the access to knowledge.

America is a nation that offers education to all!

America is a great nation because of its belief in freedom. America is nothing without freedom. Any immigrant who comes here mostly comes for the chance to be free. They come here to escape the exploitation they faced in their homelands. America is able to give freedom to its citizens because God wants it to be given to all his people. In Luke 4:18 it says, "The Spirit of the Lord is upon me, because he hath anointed me to preach the gospel to the poor; he hath sent me to heal the brokenhearted, to preach deliverance to the captives, and recovering of sight for the blind, and set at liberty them that are bruised," The verse shows that God wants freedom to be given to us, because we are the prisoners trapped on an evil Earth. America is a place of refuge on our planet. We offer a safe haven for those who are oppressed. America is the stronghold of freedom.

In conclusion, America is the greatest nation on Earth. America is the land of second chances, it is blessed with the gift of knowledge for all, and is a fortress of freedom. God bless America!
