

An Answered Prayer

In kindergarten a little boy made his mommy very happy on Mother's Day. He made her a beautiful box. It was yellow and it had a pretty white and pink flower on the lid. Inside it had the verse, "Therefore I tell you, whatever you ask for in prayer, believe that you have received it, and it will be yours." Mark 11:24. The little boy told his mom that this box would be their special prayer box. Every time they had a desire in their heart, they would write it down and date it. Then they would wait upon the Lord for their prayer to be answered.

A few months later, they realized that they wanted their family to grow. The little boy loved his mom, dad and young brother, but he felt his mommy would need a companion because he did not enjoy shopping in the mall, so he asked his mom to write a prayer to the Lord. It said, "Dear Lord we would like to pray for a new addition to our family. If it is your will, the desire of our hearts is to have a healthy beautiful little girl. They dated it September 7, 2008.

The months passed and the little boy and his mommy held to God's promise that He wants to give us the desires of our hearts. In January, to their amazement the little boy's mommy announced that she was going to have a baby. The whole family was thrilled. Yeah! On September 7, 2009 the little boy's baby sister was born. The little boy went to visit his mom at the hospital that day. As he sat on the hospital bed beside them, he turned and said to his mo, "Mommy God really answers prayers."

This is a true story.

302 words