

The FACCS Speakers Bureau is proud to present:

Dr. Rick Fielding

North Florida Christian School
Tallahassee, FL
Administrator

Biography

Married 35 years to Jeannie Fielding. Two daughters who are now married...oldest daughter's husband is youth pastor and teacher in a Christian school in south Georgia---youngest daughter and husband active in North Florida Baptist Church. Have 6 grandchildren. Began in Christian education by starting a Christian School in Central Florida. Remained there for 14 years and moved to Chattanooga serving as Vice President of Business at Tennessee Temple University for 7 years. Have been the School Administrator at NFC since 1993. Is a member of the Board of Reference of FACCS and Editorial Committee of the FACCS magazine Life@School. Working on another doctor's degree in Christian Education Leadership.

Topics Available

Leadership – A Journey not a Destination

A look at various aspects of leadership with an emphasis on the importance of acquiring skills. Using your strengths and building on your weaker areas.

Discipline – In the classroom and outside

The key is the starting point for discipline that can change a life. It begins well before the classroom, the pulpit, or any other public stage.

The single most important word.

A look in the Bible at one key word that everything we believe hangs on. It is the difference between heaven and hell for some...and for others every day it is the difference between submission and rebellion.

It is routine...that is what many say of those in Christian service.

The days are routine and there is no excitement. This passage tells us how we can maintain, or for some obtain that walk with the Lord some of us just hear others talk about.

If you are interested in booking Dr. Fielding to speak at your school, convention, conference, church service, or special meeting, please contact the FACCS Office of Program Services at ops@faccs.org or 954-517-9500 to check availability.