

Christmastime

Try to guess what my favorite holiday is. It involves pine trees, presents, and the birth of Christ. It's Christmastime! One reason why Christmastime is my favorite holiday is that every year my elf comes to visit me. Another reason is that I get tons of toys! The last, but best reason is that I get to spend time with my entire family. Christmastime is the best time of all!

The first reason why I love Christmastime is because every year my elf comes to visit and pulls off lots of pranks. Her name is Carol and she has a mischievous smile. She wears a sparkling tutu and has a little diamond on the collar of her red blouse. One day last year, she flipped over everything in my room! For instance, my chair was upside down, my pillows were on the floor, and even Carol was doing a headstand on my bed! My parents don't like her very much, especially after she broke one of my mom's favorite ornaments, but I sure do! That little, tricky elf is one reason why Christmastime is the best time of the year.

Another reason why Christmastime is so special is that I get tons of toys! Last year, my sister alone, brought five toys just for me! I get toys from my brother, my parents, my cousins, and my aunts and uncles. Every year at Christmastime, my house looks like ToysRus! I can't wait to see what I'll be getting this year!

The last reason why Christmastime is my favorite time of year is the most special reason of all. On Christmas Eve, my entire family gets together at my house to have a huge feast. My sister, her husband, my brother, my cousins, my aunt, my uncle, and even some friends all come to celebrate with us. Before the party, my parents and I decorate the outside terrace with lots of Christmas decorations. We also spend time preparing delicious desserts. We also spend time preparing delicious desserts. Once everyone gets to our home, we sit down, say grace, and then it's time to dig in! After we eat, we play games and enjoy talking to each other. Spending time with my huge family is what really makes Christmastime special for me.

Christmastime is something I look forward to every year. It's the best time of year because my elf Carol comes to play pranks, I get a huge amount of toys, and most importantly, my entire family gathers together. I am so excited that Christmastime is almost here!
