

There are about 31,102 verses in the Bible. So why is it that John 3:16 is deemed as the most important verse in the Bible? Some might argue it is, and some may not. We have yet to truly explore the total depth and knowledge of the Bible. As Christians we need to open our minds to new things and see that John 3:16 is not the “only important verse” in the Bible. As a religion, as a family, as followers in Christ we can all turn to John 5:24. This verse truly represents eternal life, reminds us of the reverence we need to have for the Lord, and also reminds us of the Lord’s word, the message of Christ.

It is clear that the verse John 5:24 relays the message of eternal life. In being a Christian one of the many blessings we get to have is not that of death, but of everlasting life. The requirement? It is simply just to believe there is a God, and he sent his only son to die for us and the sins we are to commit one day. To spend all eternity with God who created us is a truly, amazing reward. It is also a great relief that we can be assured by just opening the scripture. “...believes him who sent me has eternal life” (John 5:24).

Surely this verse reminds us of the reverence we need to have for the Lord. It prompts us to remember all the Lord has done for us in this world, especially what he sacrificed for our well-being. John 5:24 really puts into perspective what we as Christians need to do and that is to reimburse or repay the Lord. Now there is no way to ever completely get rid of the debt we owe Him. A start would be to spread the gospel and bring as many people to Christ as we can. “I can’t brag about my love for God because I fail Him daily. But I can brag about God’s love for me because he never fails.”

Without doubt John 5:24 reminds us of God’s word. Something that we need daily. It helps us through our daily struggles, and is something we can turn to in need of help. This verse helps us remember the wonders that God has done for us and the stories of some truly, amazing people who were touched by God. “Most assuredly, I say to you he who hears my word and believes in Him...” (John 5:24).

In conclusion, we can see that not only is John 5:24 an important verse, but it can really get us through the tough times in life. This verse clarifies eternal life for us. A life of happiness. It reminds us of the reverence we need to have for the Lord. It reminds us of God’s word, or the message of Christ. Three great qualities a Christian should have.
